Project Steering Committee

The Project Steering Committee are responsible for the overall success of the project guiding it over the longer term, and in reality doing all those jobs no one else gets round to!

- Cameron Shorter
- Mike Adair
- Patrice Cappelaere
- Steven M. Ottens
- Matt Diez
- Olivier Terral
- Andreas Hocevar
- Gertjan van Oosten
- Linda Derezinski

We would like to thank previous Project Steering Committee members:

- Raj Singh
- Nedjo Rodgers

Development

As a software application, it would of course be nowhere without the efforts of the many programmers who have written, debugged and tested the code itself. If you feel that your name deserves to be on the list then don't just feel sore, sign in and add it to the list!

- Radim Blazek
- Linda Derezinski
- Matthew Diez
- Simon Flannery
- Nicholas Floersch
- Richard Greenwood
- Michael Jenik
- Tom Kralidis
- Gertjan van Oosten

- Nedjo Rodgers
- Tom Schuller
- Ehud Shabtai
- Raj Singh
- Olivier Terral

Sandbox Contributors

The following people, although not trunk committers, have helped the project with ideas, patches and development in the contributors' repository

- Markus Innerebner
- [more please?]

Testing and Debugging

The following people, although not authors of the code itself, have tested and isolated faults, thereby helping considerably in the success of this project

- David Herbert
- [more please?]

Documentation

The project wouldn't be anywhere without the documentation that tells people how to use it.

- Mike Adair
- Cameron Shorter
- Peter Miller

Management

In addition to the Project steering committee the following people have helped with the management of the overall project

- Peter Miller
