Unknown Version

Overview

The "UNKNOWN" version is the catchall for items in your repository. Everything is assigned to the UNKNOWN version prior to you assigning it some legible identifier.

See the Remote API for information on classifying artifacts into appropriate versions ready for download.

> ⓘ   Users are not able to download artifacts classified into the UNKNOWN version via the search / Xircles interfaces. You should place miscellaneous items into an appropriate "MISC" version