Mercury Wagon

Design

Mercury wagon is a drop-in replacement for http, https and dav wagon implementations. Design is very simple and straightforward: MercuryWagon class translates all the wagon API calls into Mercury Transport requests.

Additional information

Overview

Mercury wagon also tracked in MERCURY-8 and it's subtasks

Some additional information could be viewed in HowTo wagon, in particular - how to configure PGP signature feature on it.