

Formal Correspondence

From time to time the GeoTools Project Management Committee is asked to produce a "letter of support" typically in support of a bidding process.

The following letters have been written at this time:

- Feature Model Letter of Support

File

Modified ▲

No files shared here yet.

The GeoTools project follows an open process, if you would like to request a letter of support please contact us during our weekly IRC meeting or via our mailing lists. Several members belong to academic and commercial organizations offering your proposal broad base of support.