

Weekly IRC 2009.01.12

Hey look at that, another week with no IRC meeting!

Probably we should move the time to some moment accessible by Jody since generally speaking he's the most reliably enthusiastic member of the community.

<acuster> lively debate this week, lots of energy...

<acuster> three more minutes and we can call it a meeting

<acuster> Okay, well that does it then. Great meeting everyone, we should do this every week.

– acuster has changed the topic to: Discussion channel for GeoTools, a library for geospatial processing in the Java language.

So technically, each PMC member is supposed to read this and comment on it. Perhaps they have all moved on?
